

Security guard standing watch at the Franklin Credit Union

Our goal at FranklinCase.org is to educate the public in understanding the complexities surrounding the Franklin matter which took place in Omaha, Nebraska during the late 80s' and early 90s'. This Franklin case exemplifies the misuse of powers in some of the most trusted establishments within the United States. FranklinCase.org hopes that by analyzing this segment of history you will gain new insight into some of the issues our country faces.

FranklinCase.org does not intend on expanding in information anytime in the near future other than what's already on the site.
